BRIGHTSIDE/FRED WICHE AWARD

SCHOOL DIVISION ONLY

Please submit your school's environmental stewardship project on a separate sheet of paper. Your project (current or proposed) should include the following items:

- Project description (should not exceed two 8 1/2 by 11 inch pages, typed in a font that is a minimum of 11 points). Project can be current/ongoing or proposed.
- Educational outcomes predicted i.e., benefits to student participants.
- Evidence of past accomplishments of any environmental programs. This can include any educational gardening projects, composting, recycling, campus cleanups and student volunteer projects.
- Group responsible for carrying out proposal, include names of students involved, ages, grade, group name, or subject area (if applicable)
- Before and after pictures or video (or drawings if the project is not completed). Photos and videos will become the property of Brightside and will not be returned. They also may be used in future publicity materials.

School Division Award Guidelines

- The School Award rewards a school with the most outstanding environmental stewardship project. The project can be current/ongoing or proposed. The project should be comprehensive to address not only beautification plans, but also have educational components, and can include campus cleanups and/or recycling initiatives.
- The project should be educational and involve full participation by students.

Eligibility

- All schools in Louisville, Kentucky (public, private and parochial) are eligible for this award.
- Schools are encouraged to submit projects for consecutive years. Most of the schools receiving the Wiche Award have submitted proposals more than once before receiving an award.
- Past award recipients are eligible to submit a proposal for additional funding for existing or new projects.

The Award

- First place award recipients will receive $2,500 towards their proposed project.
- Second place award recipients will receive $1,000 towards their proposed project.
- Third place award recipients will receive $500 towards their proposed project.
- The environmental stewardship project will be done in the name of Fred Wiche.

Selection of award is by an independent panel of judges.

Mail applications and materials to:

Brightside/Fred Wiche Award
